

End User License Agreement

This end user license agreement (the “EULA”) forms an inseparable part of the agreement concerning delivery of the Software of Roima, as defined below, to the Licensee and governs the use thereof. By using the Software, the Licensee (either by itself or by its legal representative) confirms having carefully familiarized itself with and agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions set forth below.

1 DEFINITIONS

1.1 For the purposes of this EULA, the following terms and expressions, including their grammatical variations, shall have the meaning set forth below:

“Documentation” means technical and user manuals, specifications, or other documentation applicable to the Software and made available to the Licensee by Roima in connection to the Software, along with any modifications or updates thereto.

“Error” means a demonstrable and repeatable event in of the Software which does not behave in the manner described in the Documentation and which renders the Software inoperative and causes reproducible failure of the Software in a production environment.

“Fair Use” means the Licensee’s use of Roima’s Software or service in a manner consistent with the agreed license metrics and Roima’s documented technical limits. Fair Use specifically requires that the Licensee does not: (i) generate traffic or workloads materially exceeding the levels reasonably anticipated for the purchased License type; (ii) use automated tools or integrations in ways not expressly permitted; or (iii) otherwise use the Roima’s service in a way that demonstrably degrades its availability, performance, or security. Furthermore, Fair Use means that the Licensee must not attempt to circumvent the agreed License metric in any way when using the service.

“License” means the license to use the Software under the terms and conditions agreed herein.

“Licensee” means the legal entity licensing the Software under this EULA.

“License Order” means a formal agreement or document between Roima and the Licensee that specifies the Software, License types and metrics, including fees, validity, and applicable service descriptions.

“Open-Source Software” Software that is distributed with its source code and licensed under terms that allow anyone to use, modify, and distribute the software, subject to the conditions of the applicable open-source license.

“Perpetual License” means a type of License that grants the Licensee the right to Use the Software indefinitely, subject to the terms and conditions of this EULA.

“SaaS License” and “Subscription License” both mean a type of license that grants the Licensee the right to Use the Software for a specific, limited period of time.

“Sanctions” means any economic, trade or financial sanctions or other trade restrictions administered or enforced by the United Nations, the European Union, the United States of America (USA), UK or any other relevant jurisdiction, including, without limitation, the EU Consolidated list of persons, groups and entities subject to EU financial sanctions, the U.S. Treasury Department Office of Foreign Assets Control list of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons or any similar list maintained by any EU member state or the country of registration of Roima or the Licensee.

“Software” means Roima’s proprietary standard software and related documentation, including modifications to Roima’s standard software and new versions provided to the Licensee by Roima.

“Support” has the meaning set forth in Section 8.

“Use” or “Using” means to download, install, activate, access, or otherwise use the Software.

“User” means a physical individual (i.e. user login either by an employee or contractor of Licensee) who is granted access to use the Software;

2 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

2.1 The Software is sole property of Roima and/or third parties and may be protected by copyright or other intellectual property rights. Roima retains all right, title and interest to the Software and in all improvements, enhancements, modifications, or derivative works thereof.

2.2 The Licensee’s rights to Use the Software are limited to the rights expressly granted by this EULA. No other rights with respect to the Software or any related intellectual property rights are granted or implied. These license terms do not grant any right to use the trade names, logos, domain names, or other brand-related names or identifiers of Roima or the Software.

3 GRANT OF LICENSE

3.1 The Software is licensed, not sold. Subject to payment of the applicable fees and compliance with this EULA, Roima grants to the Licensee a limited, non-exclusive, non-assignable and non-transferable License to Use the Software and the Documentation solely for the Licensee’s internal operations. The Licensee shall ensure that Users comply with this EULA and shall be liable for any noncompliance by Users.

3.2 License metric is agreed in the License Order. Unless otherwise specified by Roima, applicable License metrics are:

a) “Named User” means a named individual or a non-human operated device authorized to use the Software (or any portion thereof) regardless of whether the individual or device is actively using the Software at any given time.

b) “Concurrent User” means a number of Users utilizing the Software simultaneously.

c) “Instance” or “Asset” or “Site” means a volume-based metric, including but not limited to the number of installations, assets managed, sites or devices running the Software.

3.3 In addition, the acquired module or agreed functionality of the Software or usage volumes of the Software may impact the scope of the License as specified in the License Order.

3.4 The License hereunder is valid solely during the term of this EULA as specified in Section 15.

4 LIMITATIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

4.1 The Licensee undertakes not and will not permit any third party to:

(i) transfer, sublicense, or assign the Licensee’s rights under the License to any other person or entity, except as expressly permitted by this EULA, unless expressly authorized by Roima;

(ii) modify, adapt, translate or create derivative works of the Software;

(iii) reverse engineer, decompile, decrypt, disassemble or otherwise attempt to derive the source code, underlying ideas, algorithms, file formats or programming interfaces of the Software by any means whatsoever, except to the extent that this restriction is expressly prohibited by applicable law and then only expressly authorized in writing by Roima;

(iv) publicly disseminate performance information or analysis (including, without limitation, benchmarks) from any source relating to the Software;

(v) make the functionality of the Software available to third parties, whether as an application service provider, or on a rental, service bureau, cloud service, hosted service, or other similar basis;

- (vi) remove, modify, or conceal any product identification, copyright, proprietary, intellectual property notices or other marks on or within the Software;
- (vii) create any other software that incorporates the Software, except to the extent expressly authorized in writing by Roima.

4.2 Without limiting the foregoing, copying the Software to any other server or location for further reproduction or redistribution is expressly prohibited.

4.3 The Licensee shall promptly notify Roima if it becomes aware of any unauthorized Use of the Software by any third party. The Licensee must maintain industry-standard security practices, including managing passwords, authorized User access, and security for accessing the Software.

4.4 The Licensee's usage, automation or integrations must adhere to Fair Use requirements. The Licensee may access the Software only through the interfaces and integration methods expressly documented by Roima. Automated access methods, including but not limited to robotic process automation ("RPA"), user interface scripting, or data scraping tools, are permitted only where explicitly approved by Roima in writing. Roima will notify the Licensee if it identifies activities, that materially deviate from these requirements, and the Licensee shall be given a reasonable time to remedy such deviation before Roima takes any corrective action.

5 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

- 5.1 The Licensee represents and warrants that it shall:
 - (i) only Use the Software in such network environment, which meets the requirements of the Documentation; and
 - (ii) not to Use the Software for any illegal purposes or to otherwise violate any applicable law or contractual obligations.

6 LIMITED WARRANTY AND DISCLAIMER

6.1 The Licensee acknowledges that the Software has not been developed to meet its individual requirements, and that it is therefore the Licensee's responsibility to ensure that the facilities and functions of the Software meet such requirements.

6.2 Roima hereby warrants, that during the SaaS Agreement period (a) the Software in its standard form will perform materially in accordance with the Documentation concerning the standard version of the Software, (b) Roima will use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the availability of the Software in accordance with the applicable service level agreement; and (c) the Software will not contain any material defects that prevent its intended functionality.

6.3 In case of on-premise delivery, Roima warrants, that for a period of ninety (90) calendar days from the Software delivery date ("Warranty Period"), the Software shall operate substantially as described in the Documentation.

6.4 The Licensee must notify Roima of any alleged non-conformance or defect in writing. Roima's sole obligation with respect to a breach of the foregoing warranty shall be to repair or replace the Software giving rise to the breach within a reasonable period of time. In case of on-premise delivery, any warranty claim must be made by the Licensee within the Warranty Period.

6.5 The warranty under this Section 6 shall not apply: (i) if the Software is used against the Documentation or other written instruction given by Roima; (ii) if any modifications or installations or other performances are made to the Software by the Licensee, unauthorized provider or any other third party; or (iii) to defects in the Software due to accident, abuse or improper Use by the Licensee.

6.6 Except for the limited warranty expressly set forth herein above, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Roima provides the Software “as is” and with all faults, without any warranty of any kind, including without limitation any express, implied or statutory warranties of any kind, including, but not limited to any warranty of functionality, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, lack of viruses or freedom from infringements, accuracy or completeness, results, and lack of negligence or lack of workmanlike effort. Furthermore, there is no warranty or condition of title, quiet enjoyment, quiet possession, correspondence to description, or non-infringement, with regard to the Software. The Software is not, and will not be, error free or run without interruption or that any security mechanisms implemented by the Software will not have inherent limitations.

6.7 No oral or written information or advice given by Roima or any of its authorized representative shall create a warranty, duty or condition or in any way increase the scope of this warranty.

7 UPDATES AND ERROR-CORRECTIONS

7.1 From time to time, Roima may update or otherwise modify the Software, including, but not limited to, for purposes of enhancement of security functions, mandatory Error correction and improvement of functions. Such updates or modifications may delete or change the nature of features or other aspects of the Software, including, but not limited to, functions the Licensee may rely upon.

7.2 The Licensee acknowledges and agrees that such activities may occur at Roima’s sole discretion and may condition continued Use of the Software upon the Licensee’s complete installation or acceptance of such update or modifications. For the avoidance of doubt Roima will not perform any updates or modifications without the Licensee’s prior consent to the Software installed at the Licensee’s system. Any updates and/or modifications shall be deemed to be, and shall constitute part of, the Software for purposes of this EULA.

7.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the terms of this EULA will govern any Software updates provided by Roima that replace and/or supplement the original Software, unless such update is accompanied by a separate license in which case the terms of that license will govern.

8 SUPPORT

8.1 Roima may provide support services (the “Support”) to the Licensee for the Software as agreed between the parties. Support includes use of commercially reasonable efforts to correct an Error and providing updates to the Software if and as made generally available to Support customers of Roima.

8.2 If there is no valid agreement for Support, Roima shall be entitled to charge the Licensee for all provided work and Error corrections in accordance with Roima’s general price list valid at that time.

9 AUDIT

9.1 Roima audits regularly the Licenses under this EULA. Upon written request by Roima, the Licensee shall provide Roima or its designated representative any necessary information on Use of the Software. Roima takes into account any unreported increases in Licenses in the upcoming invoicing.

10 THIRD-PARTY SOFTWARE USE

10.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, certain third-party software products supplied by Roima are subject to end user license agreements separately issued by the third-party suppliers as indicated on the License Order. This EULA as such does not grant the Licensee any rights to use third-party software. The Licensee's use of such third-party software is subject to the terms and conditions of the end user license agreement accompanying that software.

11 OPEN-SOURCE SOFTWARE

- 11.1 Roima may incorporate Open-Source Software components into the licensed Software, provided that such components are used in compliance with their respective license terms and do not hinder or prevent the Licensee from using the Software in accordance with this EULA.

12 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 12.1 The Licensee agrees that all code, inventions, know-how, business, technical and financial information as well as any other confidential or proprietary information, whether verbal, printed or in machine-readable form or otherwise, regardless of possible medium, it obtains from Roima constitute the confidential property of Roima (the "Confidential Information"), provided that it is identified as confidential at the time of disclosure or should be reasonably known to be Confidential Information due to the nature of the information disclosed and the circumstances surrounding the disclosure. For the sake of clarity Software, Documentation or any technical information and performance information relating to the Software shall be deemed Confidential Information without any marking or further designation. Information that the Licensee is a customer of the Roima shall not be Confidential Information.
- 12.2 The Licensee may only Use the Confidential Information of to perform its obligations or to exercise its rights expressly set forth in this EULA. Except as expressly authorized herein, the Licensee will hold in confidence and not Use or disclose, directly or indirectly, any Confidential Information.
- 12.3 The Licensee acknowledges that disclosure of Confidential Information would cause substantial harm for which damages alone would not be a sufficient remedy, and therefore that upon any such disclosure by the Licensee, Roima shall be entitled to seek appropriate equitable relief in addition to whatever other remedies it might have at applicable law.

13 INDEMNIFICATION AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 13.1 Roima warrants that the Software does not infringe third party intellectual property rights when used in accordance with this EULA.
- 13.2 Roima shall, at its own expense, indemnify the Licensee against any claims asserted against the Licensee alleging that the Software infringes third-party intellectual property rights, provided that the Licensee promptly notifies Roima in writing of such claims, permits Roima to defend or settle the claims on the Licensee's behalf, and, upon Roima's request and at Roima's expense, provides all necessary information, assistance, and authorisations required.
- 13.3 Roima's sole liability (and the Licensee's exclusive remedy) for any breach of this warranty shall be: (i) to use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the Licensee with an Error correction or workaround which corrects the reported non-conformity, or (ii) if an Error correction or workaround cannot be provided within reasonable timeframe, to refund the unused portion of the Licence fee paid for the Software. The unused portion of the Licence fee shall be calculated on a pro-rata basis from the date of notification of non-conformity to the end of the Licence term.
- 13.4 To the extent permitted under applicable law, under no circumstances will either party be liable to the other party or their contracting parties for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, punitive or exemplary damages arising out of or in any way related to the use of or inability to use the Software, loss of profits, revenue, production, business opportunity, or loss of anticipated savings, goodwill or reputation, howsoever arising, even though the parties may be aware of the possibility or likelihood of such cost, loss or damage and regardless of the form of action or whether arising in contract, tort, negligence, by statute or otherwise.

- 13.5 Subject to applicable law, and with the exception of breaches under section 4 (Limitations and Restrictions), section 13.1 (Intellectual Property Rights Warranty), section 12 (Confidential Information), or any infringement of Roima's intellectual property rights by the Licensee, neither party shall be liable to the other for any claim arising out of this EULA in an amount exceeding the total License fees paid by the Licensee to Roima during the twelve (12) months preceding the event giving rise to such claim.
- 13.6 It is explicitly understood by Licensee that the obligations in this agreement, including but not limited to any and all indemnities and warranties set forth herein, are from Roima only and are not offered on behalf of any other party.

14 SANCTIONS AND EXPORT CONTROL

- 14.1 Each party warrants that, it or any entity or person that has direct or indirect control of fifty percent or more of its shares ("Beneficiaries") are not subject to any Sanctions. A breach of this warranty shall be considered a material breach for the purpose of this section. Parties agree that if it or any of its Beneficiaries become subject to any Sanctions, whether introduced before or after such date, which prohibit or restrict a party's performance of or rights under this EULA, or the performance of this EULA exposes such party, or creates a risk of such being party being exposed, to any Sanctions, including, without limitation, any extraterritorial or secondary sanctions, the other party may suspend or terminate the Agreement upon such Sanctions becoming effective.

- 14.2 Each party warrants that, it and all its subcontractors shall comply with (i) all Sanctions or other trade restrictions relevant to the EULA. This includes, without limitation, sanctions or other trade restrictions issued by the United Nations, the USA, the EU, UK or any other applicable country or institution. Each party shall also comply with all applicable export control laws and regulations, including without limitation the U.S. Export Administration Regulation, the EU Dual Use Regulation Council Regulation EC NO 2021/821, its valid amendments and all similar laws in the country of domicile of the Licensee and/or Roima, and from where the services will be exported.
- 14.3 Each party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that all required export control classification and/or all necessary information related to export, re-export authorization or licenses or written confirmations that no export authorization is needed or services are not classified as dual-use items as provided.
- 14.4 Roima shall not be held liable for the Licensee's use of the Software in any country that violates legal restrictions on the export of technology. Furthermore, Roima disclaims liability for any use of the Software that is unlawful, necessitates special permissions or insurance, or imposes any obligations or liabilities on Roima beyond those explicitly stated in this EULA.

15 TERM AND TERMINATION

- 15.1 The License under this EULA will commence on the date specified in the License Order or the date when the Licensee independently adds new Users, as applicable. Validity of the License is in: (i) SaaS or Subscription Licenses for the term of the separate License Order made between the Licensee and Roima, (i) Perpetual Licenses for an indefinite period following full payment of the Licenses.

March 20, 2026

Confidential

- 15.2 Either party may terminate the License immediately for cause if the other party: (i) fails to remedy any material breach of this EULA within thirty (30) calendar days after written notice of such breach; (ii) the other party becomes insolvent, goes bankrupt or falls into liquidation or anything similar happens to the other party under any applicable Laws, or it is otherwise clear that the other party will be unable to meet its contractual obligations in full due to financial difficulties. Termination is not an exclusive remedy and the exercise by either party of any remedy under this EULA will be without prejudice to any other remedies it may have under EULA, by applicable law, or otherwise.
- 15.3 In addition, if the Licensee is in default of any of its payments of applicable License fees hereunder, Roima is entitled to suspend its performance by providing a prior fourteen (14) days written notice to the Licensee. If the Licensee does not pay all due amounts immediately upon the suspension notice, Roima is entitled to terminate the License and this EULA with immediate effect.
- 15.4 Following Sections shall survive any termination or expiration of this EULA: 2 (Intellectual Property Rights), 4 (Limitations and Restrictions), 5 (Representations and warranties), 12 (Confidential Information), 13 (Indemnification and limitation of liability), and 16 (Miscellaneous).
- ## 16 MISCELLANEOUS
- 16.1 Successors. This EULA may change in the future. The Licensee agrees that after receipt of any revised version of this EULA, it will be deemed to have accepted this revised version unless and until Roima receives written notice from the Licensee informing that it does not accept the revised version and that the Licensee has removed the Software from its Use. Any continued use of the Software after such notice shall be deemed the Licensee's agreement to be bound by such revised version.
- 16.2 Notices. Any notice hereunder shall be in writing to the notice address above and shall be deemed given: (i) upon receipt if by personal delivery; (ii) upon receipt if sent by certified or registered mail (return receipt requested); or (iii) one day after it is sent if by next day delivery by a major commercial delivery service or by e-mail.
- 16.3 Severability. If any provision in whole or in part of this EULA shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, then the provision in question shall be deemed removed and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.
- 16.4 Entire Agreement. This EULA expressly replaces and supersedes any and all other agreements, oral or written, between the parties with respect to the subject matter thereof.
- 16.5 Assignment. This EULA is not assignable, transferable or sublicensable by the Licensee except with prior written consent of Roima.
- 16.6 No waiver. A waiver by either party of any term or condition of the EULA or any breach thereof, in any one instance, shall not be deemed or construed to be a waiver of such term or condition or any subsequent breach thereof.
- 16.7 Headings. Any heading, caption or section title contained in this EULA is inserted only as a matter of convenience and in no way defines or explains any section or provision hereof.
- 16.8 Costs. The prevailing party in any action to enforce this EULA will be entitled to recover its attorneys' fees and costs in connection with such action.
- 16.9 Governing Law. The License herein and this EULA shall be governed by the substantive laws of the country in which the Roima entity acting as the licensor is domiciled, without regard to its principles and rules on conflict of laws. It is expressly agreed that the application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CISG) is excluded from the Agreement.

16.10 Dispute Resolution. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the Agreement, or the breach, termination or validity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Chamber of Commerce in the country of domicile of the Roima licensor entity. The Arbitral Tribunal shall be composed of one (1) arbitrator. The seat of arbitration shall be in the capital city of the country in which the Roima entity acting as the licensor is domiciled (i.e. Helsinki, Finland; Stockholm, Sweden; or Copenhagen, Denmark, as applicable). The language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English.
